ORAL JUDGEMENT

Rule. Learned Govt. Counsel Mr. K.C. Shah, waives the service of Rule for the respondent.

The grievance made by the petitioner in the petition is that, though the FIR has been registered on January 11, 1995 regarding the offences, allegedly committed between November 17, 1994 and December 8, 1994, absolutely, no progress whatsoever has been made. It is the grievance made by the petitioner further that, he is being assured by the police that, the investigation has commenced, but probably, the petitioner is not able to accept this say. The present petition can be disposed of, by saying that, the DSP, Bhuj or any officer to be appointed by him or any other officer, who is incharge of the investigation, shall complete the investigation, as early as possible, and at any rate, within a period of three months hereof. Rule is made absolute accordingly.
