Sr. No.	Date	Orders

%07.01.2005

Present: Mr.P.P.Ahuja for the plaintiff.
Mr.Rakesh Saini for defendants 1 to 4.
Mr.S.C.Singhal for defendant No.5.

+CS(OS) 1556/2000
*

Counsel for the plaintiff states that he has been instructed by the plaintiffs to give up defendants 6, 7 and 8. Name of defendants 6, 7 and 8 is accordingly deleted from the array of defendants. Plaintiffs to file amended memo of parties today itself.

IA. 97/2005

This is an application under Order 23 Rule 3 CPC. Application has been signed by all the plaintiffs and defendants 1 to 5. Application has been signed by the counsels for the parties noted above. Application is supported by the personal affidavits of plaintiffs 1 to 6 and defendants 1 to 5. Affidavit in support of the application on behalf of plaintiff No.7 has been filed by Ms.Sadhna Singhal. A Director of plaintiff No.7. Mr.P.P.Ahuja states that he has identified the signatures of the deponents on the affidavits filed on behalf of the plaintiffs. Likewise Mr.Saini states that he has identified the signatures of defendants 1 to 4 on the affidavits deposed by them. Mr.S.C.Singhal states that he has identified the signatures of defendant No.5 on the affidavit sworn by said defendant.

Date	Orders

The application contains the terms of settlement between the parties. Settlement pertains to property No.4062-63, Naya Bazar, Delhi-110006. Settlement envisages certain payments to be tendered and received inter se some of the parties. I am satisfied that the settlement is lawful. The application being IA No. 97/2005 is allowed.

CS(OS). 1556/2000

In view of the settlement arrived at between the parties terms whereof have been set out in IA NO. 97/2005, suit stands decreed in terms of settlement recorded between the parties in sub paras (i) to (xxxii) of para 9 of the application.

No costs.

January 07, 2005
n

PRADEEP NANDRAJOG, J.

fresh IA 3793/011 o/s 151 de by def no 5 — for fresh report of SDM be called.