This writ petition has been filed impugning the award passed by the Arbitrator as well as the appeal against said order having been dismissed by the Tribunal. In view of role of Sita Ram Singhal, result of investigation pursuant to the order passed by this Court and an inquiry conducted by the Crime Branch of Delhi Police fact of charge sheet having been filed against him, CFSL report obtained allegations that he siphoned of the money of the Society and has received money in a clandestine manner and enrolled more members than the membership of the Society all these aspects have to be considered by the Arbitrator. The award passed by the Arbitrator was not on the basis of any documents produced by the Society, as the Society could not have produced the documents in view of the facts stated above.

Therefore, we set aside the impugned order as well as the award rendered by the arbitrator and direct the Registrar Cooperative
