		EX-NAIK SANWAT RAM Petitioner Through Mr. M. K. Gaur, Advocate. versus
)		UOI & ORS. Through Mr. Rajinder Nischal, Advocate. CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE MUKUL MUDGAL HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE H.R. MALHOTRA ORDER 24.08.2005
•		1. Rule D.B. With the consent of the learned counsel for the parties, the writ petition is taken up for final hearing.
		2. By this writ petition the petitioner prays for issue of writ of mandami against the respondent to restore the service pension of the petitioner for the period from 13th August, 1963 to 31st August, 1978 and grant of pension for DSC Service for the period from 1st September, 1978 to 31st August, 2000. It is also pleaded in the wi petition that the petitioner had not been granted the option under O.M. dated March, 1983.
£		3. The counter affidavit filed by the respondent annexes the option exercised by the petitioner on 2 rd April, 1983 by which his option under the said O.I dated 3 rd March, 1983, has been exercised. In this view of the matter, no further rel can be claimed by the petitioner. The writ petition is thus dismissed as having ·	become infructuous. All pending applications also stand disposed of.
