In terms of order of the Joint Registrar dated 6th October, 2005, Court Notices were issued to the decree holders. Subsequently, in the order dated 16th January, 2006 it has been recorded by the Joint Registrar that decree holders No.1,2,3 and 5 have been served, but nobody was present and this case was listed before the Court. Even today none is present on their behalf. Consequently, the Execution Petition is dismissed for non-prosecution and default in appearance.

+EA No. 36/2007 in Ex. P. No. 112/2002

*

On 15.2.2006, execution petition was dismissed in default. It is stated by the learned counsel for the decree holder that decree has not been fully satisfied. It would be open to the decree holder to file fresh execution petition. In view of this liberty granted to the decree holder, he does not press this application which is disposed of.
