1. Notice. Counsel as above accept notice for respondent. Parties state that the matters could be disposed of without awaiting a formal response. Though in some of the petitions there are no averments that petitioners have filed petition under sub-section 4 of Section 74 of the Delhi Land Reforms Act 1954 seeking declaration that on being admitted as asami of the writ lands and having reclaimed the same they be admitted as bhumidars, counsel for the petitioners makes a statement at the Bar that all petitioners have filed the necessary petitions.

2. Taking the statement on record and subject to the petitioners having filed petition under sub-section 4 of Section 74 of the Delhi Land Reforms Act 1954 the writ petitions stand disposed of with a direction that if petitions under sub-section 4 of Section 74 of the Delhi Land Reforms Act 1954 have been filed
