3. Deputy inspector General

Ranikhet, District Almora, Uttarakhand.

..... Respondents

Mr. S. Dhulia, Sr. Advocate assisted by Mr. Sanjay Bhatt, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Vikash Pande, Central Govt. Counsel for the respondents.

Hon. Prafulla C. Pant, J.

Heard Learned counsel for the parties.

2) By means of this writ petition, the petitioners have challenged the impugned order dated 11.04.2007 and order dated 24.04.2007 (copies Annexure – 4 & 5 to the writ petition), whereby the petitioners are transferred to various places.

3) The petitioners are serving with S.S.B. (Sashastra Seema Bal), earlier known as Special Service Bureau.

4) Learned Central Government Counsel raised a preliminary objection by filing a short counter affidavit stating that petitioners are working as civilians with S.S.B. and have remedy to approach the Central Administrative Tribunal by filing O.A. for redress of their grievances. On behalf of the respondents reliance has been placed in the decision given by the Apex court in L. Chandra Kumar Vs. Union of India and others; reported in (1997) 3 Supreme Court Case 261. Also, the judgment and order dated 26.02.2007, passed by Division Bench of this Court in Writ Petition No. 260 (S/B) of 2006, is referred.

5) Learned Senior Advocate appearing for the petitioners argued that the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985, (hereinafter referred to as the Act) is not applicable to the petitioners, as Section 2 of said Act makes it clear that the provisions of the Act are not applicable to any member of armed forces of the Union. However, sub-clause (iii) of clause (b) and clause (c) of sub-Section (1) of Section 14 of the Act provide that in the case of civilian working with the Defence Services, they have remedy with the Central Administrative Tribunal.

5) Therefore, in view of the provisions contained in sub-clause (iii) of clause (b) and clause (c) of sub-Section (1) of Section 14 of the Act read with L. Chandra Kumar's case (supra), and considering the fact that in the short counter affidavit, it has been stated on oath that the petitioners are civilians, this Court is not inclined to interfere with the impugned order of transfers. Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed with the observation that the petitioners may seek their remedy by filing O.A. before the Central Administrative Tribunal.
