Writ Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India

Present : Shri MK Bhaduri, Counsel for the petitioner.
Shri Kishore Bhaduri, Additional Advocate General for the State/respondents.

ORDER

(29th February, 2008)

The following order of the Court was passed by Rajeev Gupta, C.J.

Learned counsel for the parties are heard.

2) Shri Kishore Bhaduri, learned Additional Advocate General submits that, as the sole point raised in this writ petition about the imposition of ceiling of maximum three numbers of fair price shops to one agency already stands decided vide order dated 09.03.2007 passed in WP No.5262/2006 and other connected petitions, now, nothing survives for decision in this writ petition.

3) Shri MK Bhaduri, learned counsel for the petitioner could not dispute the above factual situation now prevailing in the case.

4) The writ petition, therefore, is dismissed as infructuous.

5) Consequently, the interim order dated 31.5.2006 stands vacated automatically.
