for the respondents.

RAJESH BINDAL, J.

Learned counsel for the parties on instructions from Surinder Singh (appellant No.3), Amar Nath Grover, Roopak Grover (respondents) who are present in Court submits that dispute between them regarding apportionment of compensation on account of acquisition of land has been compromised and they have agreed to share the compensation in the ratio of 50:50 as against 25:75 directed by the learned lower Court to be shared by the land owners and the tenants, respectively. Compromise in original duly signed by the parties to the dispute and counter signed by the respective counsels thereof has been placed on record. In addition to this affidavits of three appellants and six respondents have also been placed on record. The affidavits on behalf of one of the respondent namely Krishan Ahuja d/o deceased Bishan Dass has not been placed on record as she is living abroad. The compromise signed by her has been placed on record in which her signatures have been duly verified by her nephew Roopak Grover.

The aforesaid compromise and the affidavits are taken on record.

In view of the compromise between the parties, the award of the Court below is modified to the extent that amount of compensation shall now be shared by the land owners and the tenants in the ratio of 50:50.

The petition is disposed of accordingly.

Sept. 30, 2008.
