

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE FOR RAJASTHAN AT JAIPUR BENCH, JAIPUR.

ORDER

S.B. CRIMINAL MISC. PETITION NO.151/2005
Pyare Lal Vs. State of Rajasthan.

31.01.2008

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE DALIP SINGH

Shri M.M. Ranjan }
Shri Rajat Ranjan }, for the petitioner.
Shri Jagdish Lamba, Public Prosecutor.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.
The petitioner has challenged the order passed by the learned trial court dated 12.9.2001 by which the application filed under Section 319 of Cr.P.C. has been allowed. The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the evidence is not reliable and a false case against the petitioner is sought to be made out.

I have considered the above submission and perused the order impugned passed by the learned trial court. The learned trial court has considered the relevant facts and in para 39 and summed up that during the trial the witnesses in their statement before the court have named the petitioner as one of the accused involved in the occurrence. His name is also there in the first information report.

The learned trial court taking into consideration the entire facts and circumstances and the material on record has proceeded under Section 319 Cr.P.C. and has taken cognizance against the accused petitioner. In the facts and circumstances I do not consider this petition to be a fit case for interference under the inherent jurisdiction under Section 482 Cr.P.C. This criminal misc. petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. as well as the stay petition are accordingly dismissed.
