...

This parole petition has been preferred on the ground of death of convict's father on 15.7.2008 in a matter where appeal against the conviction is pending before this court. Since the petitioner can seek relief in the appeal preferred against his conviction by moving appropriate application. There is no ground for grant of temporary bail or parole to the petitioner. Therefore, we do not find any reason to grant any relief to the petition on this petition.

Hence the parole petition is dismissed.
