

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.20764 of 2009
AMRESH CHAUDHARY
Versus
STATE OF BIHAR
-----

3. 31.07.2009 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

Nobody appears on behalf of the State.

As per allegation in the FIR, the petitioner demanded Rangdari from the informant. When refused, it is said that he fisted and slapped the informant. It is also the allegation that he assaulted the informant with bricks and butt of a pistol.

Counsel for the petitioner submits that there is already litigation going on between the parties.

It appears from the impugned order that the petitioner has murky past and he is involved in as many as five cases.

Learned counsel for the petitioner today filing a supplementary affidavit has stated that he was blessed with bail in other cases. He has also brought on record the injury report which indicates that the informant at least received one injury on his knee which was found to be grievous. It is contended that the petitioner is in custody since 22.10.2005.

In the facts and circumstances of the case, let the petitioner abovenamed be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of CJM, Begusarai in connection with Bhagwanpur P.S.Case No. 90/05, subject to the conditions that one of the bailors shall be his close/own family member and that the petitioner shall appear in person before the officer-in-charge or any other officer present at the said police station once in a month (preferably on Saturday or Sunday) for a period of five months from the date of his release. In case of default in such appearance, the officer-in-charge shall promptly report the matter to the court in seisin of the matter, whereafter the trial court shall cancel the bail bond and secure his arrest in accordance with law.

hr

( Kishore K. Mandal )

