

CWP (T) No. 5750 of 2008.

31.08.2009 Present: Mr. B.C. Gupta, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. R.K. Sharma, Senior Additional Advocate
General and Mr. Rajinder Dogra, Additional
Advocate General, for respondents No. 1 and 2.

Mr. Rakesh Jaswal, Advocate, for respondent
No. 3.

The grievance of the petitioner, as far as release of pension is concerned, the same stands redressed. However, the same has not been granted from the due date. According to the petitioner, there is delay of eight months. The delay on the part of the Corporation has not been explained satisfactorily. The retiral benefits have to be paid as and when they become due. Consequently, the petitioner is held entitled for interest at the rate of 6% per annum from due date till the time the retiral benefits were released by the respondents.

With the above observations, the petition stands disposed of.

(Rajiv Sharma),
Judge

August 31, 2009.
bhupender

