SATISH KUMAR MITTAL, J. (Oral)

Admittedly petitioners have been retired from service on 28.2.2009. The petitioners have claimed the benefit of retirement up to the age of 60 years. On the basis of the instructions from Shri Vijay Singh, Commercial Officer of respondent No.2, learned counsel for respondents No.2 to 4 has made statement that the petitioners shall be permitted to continue in service up to 60 years of age provided they undertake not to claim any financial benefit under common cadre of Federation or any other Statutory Rule/Instructions and not to claim wages for the period they remained out of service till joining.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has accepted the proposal of the respondents.

Let the necessary undertaking required by respondents be filed within two weeks. On filing such undertakings the respondents shall rejoin the petitioners in service and continue them up to the age of 60 years without financial benefit as proposed.

Disposed of as such.

Dasti on payment.
