Civil Writ Petition No.12114/2010
Shakti Singh Versus Divisional Commnr Ajmer & Ors

Date of Order    :::    30/08/2010

Hon'ble Mr. Justice Ajay Rastogi

Mr. Shakti Singh, petitioner in person

Petitioner appears in person and submits that he holding the post of LDC after having worked for last more than five years at Deedwana (Nagaur) on being transferred to Ladnun vide order dt.18/06/2010 of the Collector, Nagaur, preferred appeal which was rejected by learned Tribunal vide judgment dt.19/08/2010, has preferred instant petition.

Petitioner submits that as per policy of the Government, in regard to husband & wife, if in Government service, it has to be looked into that they are remained at the same station and he has been transferred because of political intervention made by Local MLA and only to accommodate respondent-5, he was transferred vide order impugned.

It has been observed by learned Tribunal in its judgment dt.19/08/2010 that petitioner worked at the place of his posting from where he was transferred vide order impugned for last five years and the transferred place is at a distance of only 40 kms. Taking note whereof, it was not considered appropriate by learned Tribunal to interfere in the impugned decision of the respondents.

This Court has heard the petitioner in person and perused the material on record and finds no manifest error being committed which may call for interference in the order impugned. Transfer is otherwise an incidence of service and does not affect either of service conditions and he cannot claim any lien to continue at one place of posting for all times to come.

Consequently, writ petition fails and is hereby dismissed.
