Shri P.F. Patni, Advocate h/f Shri Joydeep Chatterji, Advocate for petitioner.

Shri D.V. Tele, APP for respondent.

CORAM: T.V. NALAWADE, J.Date: 31.05.2011

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Learned APP waives notice for the respondent.

This application is moved for temporary bail on the ground that the petitioner wants to appear for B.C.A. examination, which is to be held on 4.6.2011.
In support of the contentions, the petitioner has produced copy of the hall-ticket and the certificate issued by Jalna College of I.T., Jalna.

The Sessions Court has already rejected temporary bail application on merits. Post mortem report is not available.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that it is a case of urgency as the petitioner will be deprived of the opportunity to appear for the examination.

In view of these circumstance, no temporary bail can be granted to the petitioner and his prayer stands rejected accordingly. However, a direction can be given to the jail authorities to make arrangement for taking the petitioner to the examination centre on 4.6.2011 with police escort at the cost of the petitioner. The jail authorities to calculate the costs. The petitioner is directed to deposit the costs with the jail authorities in advance. On the same day of the examination, the petitioner be taken back immediately to the jail after the examination.

Application stands disposed of.

Office to issue authenticated copy of this order to the learned counsel for the parties on demand.
