..Respondents

Coram: Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rajesh Bindal

Present: None for the petitioner.

Mr. Gurvinder Singh Sandhu, Assistant Advocate General,
Haryana.

Rajesh Bindal, J.

Prayer in the petition is for a direction to respondent nos. 2 to 4 to decide the application of the petitioner for child admission parole for four weeks.

The application was filed in March 2010. It was forwarded by the Superintendent of the Jail to the concerned authorities on 30.3.2010. In the reply to the petition it has been stated that the petitioner had availed of 4 weeks parole from 10.12.2009 to 8.1.2010. He has been convicted and sentenced to undergo rigorous imprisonment for a period of seven years and to pay a fine of ₹ 15,000/- under Sections 323, 325, 332, 333, 353, 392, 394, 397 IPC. He has merely undergone imprisonment of about two years and six months. It has further been referred to therein that the Commissioner, Rohtak Division, vide his letter dated 30.12.2010 has intimated that process for admission of the children of the petitioner has already been completed and his case for grant of parole was not recommended.

Considering the fact that purpose for which the parole was sought is no more there, the petition is dismissed.
