ultimately, their marriage has been dissolved by way of a decree of divorce by mutual consent vide orders dated 4.4.2011. The respondent No. 2, who is the complainant and the petitioners state that they have compromised the matter and now there is no dispute left. In terms of the settlement, out of total settlement amount of Rs. 11 lakhs, a sum of Rs.8 lakhs have already been paid to the respondent No. 2 and the balance Rs. 3 lakhs is being paid today by way of a pay order in her name. Respondent No. 2 states that she has compromised the matter with the petitioners out of her own free will and volition and without any pressure or coercion of any sort and now, she is left with no grievance against the petitioners and she has no objection if the present FIR is quashed.

In view of the foregoing and the fact that the parties have amicably resolved all their disputes, no useful purpose would be served by continuing with the FIR. Accordingly, FIR No. 12/2008, under Sections 498A/406/34 IPC, registered at P.S. Sarai Rohilla and all the consequential proceedings arising therefrom are hereby quashed. Bail bonds of the petitioners are cancelled and their sureties are discharged.

The petition stands disposed of accordingly.
