

R.P. No.163/2012
(Ku. Pratibha Mishra Vs. State of MP & others)

29-02-2012

Heard Shri K.K.Gautam, learned counsel for the petitioner, on the question of admission.

The petitioner has filed this petition pointing out that a typographical error stepped into the order passed by this Court in W.P.No. 1941/2012, dated 13-2-2012 wherein instead of the word "Writ Petition" the word "Contempt Petition" has been mentioned.

From a perusal of the record as well as the aforesaid order the contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner appears to be correct.

The application is accordingly allowed and the order date 13-2-2012 is modified and it is ordered that the word "Contempt" be replaced by the word "Writ" wherever it occurs in the order.

The Registry is directed to make a note in the margin of the order dated 13-2-2012 passed in W.P No.1941/2012 regarding the aforesaid correction and after necessary correction rescan the order dated 13-2-2012 and certified copy of the scanned copy be supplied as and when applied for.

With the aforesaid modification the petition filed by the petitioner stands disposed of.

