Tr.P. (c) NO. 20 of 2012

Dated this the 29th day of February, 2012

ORDER

The above petition has been filed for transfer under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure. Petitioner is the wife, and the respondent, the husband. On the request made by the counsel on both sides, parties were referred to mediation. The report has been sent by the mediator informing that the parties have settled the disputes amicably as per the terms agreed into, producing a copy of the settlement thereof. In terms of the settlement the respondent/ husband. it is seen, has agreed to file a memo as to non-closing of the proceedings pending before the Family Court, and that being so nothing more need be done in this petition for transfer. But having regard to the report and also the settlement reached by the parties to resolve the matrimonial disputes between them, it is ordered that the settlement effected by the parties, copy of which is produced with the report of mediator is directed to be appended to this order, and it shall be treated as part of this order.

Send a copy of the order to the Family court concerned.
