

WPSS No.1209 of 2012
Hon'ble V.K. Bist, J.

Shri Bhagwat Mehra, Advocate holding brief of Shri Abhishek Verma, learned counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Ashish Joshi, learned Standing Counsel for the State/respondents.

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

The husband of the petitioner died on 19.04.2008. Petitioner moved a representation for compassionate appointment under the Dying-In-Harness Rules. Respondents asked the petitioner to supply Permanent Residence Certificate /Domicile Certificate. Thereafter, the petitioner applied for Permanent Residence Certificate/ Domicile Certificate. But no action was taken. When no action was taken on the application of the petitioner for issuance of Permanent Residence Certificate/ Domicile Certificate, petitioner filed Writ Petition no.169 of 2011 (M/S) before this Court, which was disposed of 27.01.2012 and direction was issued to the Tehsildar, Kashipur district Udham Singh Nagar to decide the application of the petitioner for issuance of Permanent Residence Certificate/ Domicile Certificate to the petitioner in accordance with law, within a period of three weeks from the date of production of a certified copy of the order. On 05.03.2012, the Permanent Residence Certificate was issued to the petitioner. The petitioner submitted her Permanent Residence Certificate before the respondent no.2 claiming appointment on the compassionate grounds.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that though a period of about three months have passed, but till date no decision has been taken in the matter by the respondents.

Since the petitioner has already completed all the formalities and the matter relates to the compassionate appointment of the petitioner under Dying-In-Harness Rules, it is directed that the respondent no.2 shall take final decision in the matter of the petitioner for her appointment on compassionate ground expeditiously, preferably within a period of one month from the date of production of a certified copy of the order.

With the above observation, the writ petition is disposed of.

Ad-interim mandamus application (CLMA No.9110/2012) also stands disposed of.
