Versus

State of Uttarakhand through S.S.P.,

Mr. Raj Kumar Singh Verma, Advocate for the petitioner.
Mr. Pipul Painoli, learned A.G.A. for the State / respondent nos.1 & 2.

Per: U.C. Dhyani, J.

Heard.

2. By means of the present writ petition, moved under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner Atinder Pal Singh has sought quashing of the First Information Report dated 27.09.2010 registered as case crime no. 292 of 2010 relating to offences punishable under Sections 279, 324, 504 & 506 Police Station Jwalapur, District Haridwar.

3. An FIR was lodged against the petitioner Atinder Pal Singh for the offences punishable under Sections 279, 324, 504 & 506 Police Station Jwalapur, District Haridwar 27.09.2010.

4. At the very threshold, learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that he is not interested in quashing the FIR. The criminal writ petition is accordingly dismissed, as not pressed.
5. Learned counsel for the petitioner made an alternative prayer submitting that the petitioner Atinder Pal Singh is a student of B.Com II year in S.M.J.N. Post Graduate College, Haridwar. A direction may be issued to the Magistrate concerned to dispose of the Bail Application of the petitioner same day, as the offences complained of against the petitioner are bailable offences.
6. The alternate prayer seems to be innocuous, hence the same should be allowed.
7. Considering the above submissions, duly supported by documents, it is directed that in case the present petitioner surrenders before the Magistrate concerned and moves the application for bail, the same shall be disposed of without unreasonable delay after hearing both the sides.
8. Interim Relief Application (CLMA No. 5199 of 2012) also stands disposed of.
