CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VIKASH JAIN

ORAL ORDER

4      31-10-2013      The present batch of petitions are filed alleging deliberate violation of the order dated 14.8.2012 whereby the operation of the order dated 11.4.2012 impugned therein along with consequential letters of termination had been stayed during the pendency of the writ petition.

2. Admittedly, the writ petition has now been finally decided in terms of order dated 8.8.2013 passed by a Bench of this Court inter alia, holding that the petitioners had not made out an exceptional case warranting interference by this Court in respect of the policy decision taken by the Respondent Bank. It has been observed that the petitioners had only been engaged as Business Facilitators and that too, for a period of 12 months with a rider of termination on giving notice by either side, meaning thereby, that after expiry of 12 months no right of continuance as Business Facilitator would continue in favour of the petitioners. Taking into account the decisions of the Hon'ble Kerala, Karnataka and Madhya Pradesh High Courts, the writ petition was finally dismissed.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that final disposal of the writ petition would not detract from the fact that the interim order dated 14.8.2012 was violated and for which the present petition has been filed. It is further stated that a Review Petition has also been filed against the final order passed on the writ petition though however, he is unable to supply the Civil Review number.

4. Having heard the parties and considering that the writ petition stands dismissed on merits, this Court is not persuaded to proceed in the matter of contempt against the Opposite Parties, more so inasmuch as the issue involved disengagement of the petitioners who had been working on contractual basis under agreement which had already expired. The interim order was passed pending filing of a detailed counter affidavit. This Court is not satisfied that there was any willful disobedience of the Court's order.

5. The Contempt petition accordingly stands disposed of.

6. As prayed, the petitioners are granted liberty to make prayer for revival of the Contempt petitions, if so advised, in the event that the Review Petition said to have been filed is allowed.
