CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

2. 28-02-2013 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri

Rajeev Kumar Singh, learned A.C. to Government Advocate

No. 8.

In the present petition, the petitioner has directly approached to the writ court, with a prayer to quash an order passed by the Circle Officer, Raghapur.

Learned counsel for the petitioner orally submits that direction may be given for demarcating the land of the petitioner and also set aside the communication contained in Annexure - '3' to the writ petition.

On perusal of the Annexure - '3', it appears that the Revenue Clerk had submitted a report to the Circle Officer, disclosing therein that on disputed land, the petitioner was not in possession, but it was under-possession of some other person. The Revenue Clerk had also reported that such dispute can be adjudicated by the competent court of jurisdiction.

On perusal of Annexure - '3' to the writ petition, the Court is of the opinion that such dispute can not be resolved by the writ court.

The writ petition stands dismissed.
