The petitioner apprehends arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 467, 468, 469, 471, 420/34 of the Indian Penal Code. The allegation is that using forged certificate the petitioner secured appointment against the post of ANM. Learned senior counsel, appearing on behalf of the petitioner, contends that the services of the petitioner has been terminated on the basis of her educational certificate having been found forged. He, however, contends that in the district of Jehanabad several first information report has been lodged of the same nature and at least in two cases that is Jehanabad P.S. Case no.144 of 2013 the accused persons, namely, Babita Kumari and Sahni Kumari have been given the privilege of anticipatory bail.

In view of the submissions, as aforesaid, I am of the view that this is a fit case for grant of regular bail.

The petitioner is directed to surrender before the court below, Chief Judicial Magistrate, Jehanbad, in Kako P.S. Case no. 141 of 2013, within six weeks from today and apply for regular bail. If she does so, the Court will pass appropriate order keeping in mind the fact that the petitioner is a lady and in similar circumstance other persons have been given privilege of anticipatory bail by this Court. Such application for regular bail would be disposed of on the same day when the petitioner surrenders before the court below and applies for regular bail.
