04/31-08-2013 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

The petitioner is an accused in the case registered under sections 366-A/365/371/372 of the Indian Penal Code, and under section 23 of the J.J. Act.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that he has been falsely implicated in the case; the allegation is improbable and unbelievable; there is inordinate delay of six days in lodging the FIR; he is a local permanent resident and there is no chance of his absconding.

Learned A.P.P. opposed the petitioner's prayer for bail and submitted that there are sufficient materials collected in course of investigation which go to show complicity of the petitioner; the victim girl in her statement under section 164 Cr.P.C. has supported the prosecution case.

Regard being had to the nature of allegation and materials collected against him in course of investigation, I am not inclined to release the petitioner on bail. The prayer for bail of the petitioner is, accordingly, rejected.
