BEFORE THE MADURAI BENCH OF MADRAS HIGH COURT

DATED : 28.03.2013

CORAM :

THE HONOURABLE MR.JUSTICE D.HARIPARANTHAMAN

W.P(MD)No.4742 of 2013

Samsath Begum

... Petitioner

Vs.

The Commissioner,
O/o.Commissioner of Madurai Corporation,
Madurai City Corporation,
Arignar Anna Maaligai,
Madurai.

... Respondent

Prayer : Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, praying to issue a writ of Mandamus, directing the respondent to provide the retirement benefit and pension payable for the service of the petitioner's husband namely Mohamed Sulthan and consider the petitioner's representation dated 20.03.2013.

For Petitioner : Mr.M.A.Jinnah

For Respondent : Mr.G.R.Swaminathan

O R D E R

The husband of the petitioner was working as a road worker in the respondent corporation. He served for more than 30 years. He died on 13.11.2010. The grievance of the petitioner is that the terminal benefits of her husband is not settled to her.

2. The learned counsel for the respondent corporation has submitted that the petitioner has not produced the legal heirship certificate and death certificate of her husband to the respondent corporation and those documents are enclosed only in the typed set of papers. He further submitted that if the petitioner produces the death certificate and the legal heirship certificate, the corporation is willing to disburse the terminal benefits of the petitioner's husband to the petitioner.

3. In these circumstances, this writ petition is disposed of, directing the petitioner to produce the legal heirship certificate and death certificate to the respondent corporation and on such production, the respondent is directed to disburse the terminal benefits of the petitioner's husband to the petitioner forthwith. No costs.
