

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH.

CRM M-1242 of 2014

Date of Decision: April 29, 2014

Jagjit Singh

.....Petitioner

Vs.

State of Punjab

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S. BEDI.

Present:- Mr.L.S. Sidhu, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Neeraj Yadav, AAG, Punjab.

M.M.S. BEDI, J.(ORAL)

For having been found in possession of 13 vials of rexcof , the petitioner has been in custody w.e.f. April 20, 2013. In the period of one year of detention, only three witnesses of the prosecution could be examined out of six cited. Petitioner was also found in possession of 130 tablets of carisol containing a salt carisoprodol. The said salt is not a psychotropic substance under NDPS Act.

Ignoring the said recovery, without expression of any opinion on merits of the case; taking into consideration the period of detention suffered; petitioner having not earlier been involved in any case; adopting the reformatory approach, the petitioner can be granted the concession of bail.

The petition is allowed. Petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing bail bonds/ surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court subject to the condition that he will not commit the similar offence of which he is accused of during the pendency of the trial. He will also furnish an undertaking before his release to be submitted in the Special Court that in case he is found to commit similar offence again, the bail will be liable to be cancelled.
