CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

6. 31-07-2015 Heard Sri Lakshmi Kant Tiwary, learned counsel for the petitioner, Sri Harish Kumar, learned Govt. Pleader – 32 as well as learned counsel, who has appeared on behalf of respondent no. 4/Management.

The petitioner, invoking writ jurisdiction of this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, has prayed for setting aside the award pronounced on 29-06-2010 by the Presiding Officer, Labour Court, Muzaffarpur. It has been prayed that though the learned Presiding Officer has passed the order of re-instatement of the petitioner, no direction has been given for back-wages. In sum and substance, the petitioner has made a prayer for setting aside the order to the extent whereby relief in respect of back-wages has not been paid to the petitioner.

On perusal of the award, it is evident that after termination, the petitioner was gainfully employed. In that view of the matter, the Court is of the opinion that learned Presiding Officer has committed no error.

The writ petition stands dismissed.
