THIS CCC COMING ON FOR ORDERS THIS DAY, K L MANJUNATH, J. MADE THE FOLLOWING:

ORDER

On the ground that the direction issued by this Court in W.P. No.44159/13 dated 19.12.2014 the present contempt petition is filed.

We have heard the petitioner who is appearing as a party in person and the counsel for the respondents. The only direction issued by this Court while disposing of the writ petition is that the petitioner herein has been granted liberty to submit a representation to the respondent Bank and within two weeks from the date of order of such direction it is for the Bank to consider the representation in accordance with law. In the complaint the petitioner has produced Annexure E at page 37, the Executive Director's letter dated 27.01.2015. From looking into the review order produced at Annexure – F, we are of the view that the Bank has considered the representation of the petitioner in detail and the request is rejected by the Bank. In such circumstances, if the petitioner is aggrieved, his remedy is elsewhere and not by way of contempt. Accordingly, the petition is dismissed. It is open for the petitioner to avail other remedies available for him in accordance with law.
