HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HRISHIKESH ROY

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.R. PATHAK

Mr. A. Goyal, the learned counsel for the appellant submits that his client will not press this Writ Appeal but will participate in the regular inquiry, in terms of the notice dated 21.3.2015 (page 69), issued by the Superintendent of Police, Vigilance and Anti-corruption Department, Assam. But the counsel prays that the suspected officer should be provided all due opportunities as specified by law, during the proposed regular inquiry.

In view of the above submission made by the appellant's lawyer, we note the presence of Ms. D.D. Barman, the learned Addl. Sr. Govt. Advocate and close this matter by relegating the appellant to appear before the Inquiry Officer, as per the notice dated 21.3.2015. He may however be provided with all due opportunities as mandated by law.
