

M.Cr.C. No.7015/2016

29.07.2016

Shri M. Sinjonia, learned counsel for the applicant.

Shri S. Vyas, learned Panel Advocate for the respondent State.

Heard with the aid of case-diary.

ORDER

This is first bail application filed by applicant u/s. 439 of the Cr.P.C. The accused/applicant is in custody in connection with Crime No. 280/2016 registered at Police Station Narsingharh, District Rajgarh for the offence u/s. 34(2) of the M.P. Excise Act.

2. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that as per prosecution case 60 bulk litre of liquor has been seized from the possession of the applicant. He submits that the applicant is a woman and permanent resident of District Rajgarh having no criminal antecedents. She has been falsely implicated in this case. Applicant is in custody since 25.5.2016 and trial will take considerable time to conclude. In such circumstances, the applicant be released on bail.

3. On the other hand, learned Govt. Advocate vehemently opposes the prayer and prays for dismissal of the application.

4. I have considered the overall facts and circumstances of the case and I am of the opinion that this is a fit case for grant of bail. Thus, the application is allowed. It is directed that the applicant be released on bail upon her furnishing personal bond in the sum of Rs.25,000/- (Twenty Five Thousand) with one solvent surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of trial Court for her appearance as and when directed.

5. The applicant is also directed to attend each hearing of her trial before the trial Court out of which this bail arises. Any default in attendance in the Court would result in automatic cancellation of the bail granted by this Court.

M.Cr.C. stands disposed of.

C.C. as per Rules.

(JARAT KUMAR JAIN)
JUDGE.
