CORAM : S.B. SHUKRE, J.
DATE : 30th DECEMBER, 2016.

Heard.

Perused the F.I.R. and the reply of the prosecution as well as the order of the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Nagpur.

Now it is clear that no more police custody remand of the accused could be granted. The only evidence as seen from the reply of the prosecution is in the nature of confessional statements of none other than the accused themselves. In these circumstances, no purpose is going to be served by keeping the applicant in jail for any longer period of time. Hence, the order.

The application is allowed. It is directed that the applicant be released on bail on his furnishing a P.R. Bond in the sum of Rs.20,000/- together with one solvent surety in the like sum on the conditions that (i) he shall attend the concerned police station on every Sunday between 11:00 a.m. and 12:00 p.m. till charge-sheet is filed and shall make himself available for further investigation, if any, at the call of the Investigating Officer; (ii) shall not tamper with the prosecution witnesses in any manner and (iii) shall co-operate with the trial Court in expeditious disposal of the case.

The application is disposed of accordingly.
