Mansoor Ahmad Mir, Chief Justice (oral)

Without entering into the merits of the case, I deem it proper to dispose of this appeal by providing that the claimant is entitled to the amount of compensation to the tune ₹25,000/- by exercising guess work. Ordered accordingly. The said amount is deposited by the appellant as statutory amount before the Registry.

2. Accordingly, the impugned award is modified and the appeal is disposed of.

3. The Registry is directed to release the amount awarded with interest, if any, in favour of the claimant. The excess amount alongwith upto date interest be released in favour of the appellant through payees' account cheque or by depositing the same in bank account.

4. Send down the records after placing a copy of the judgment on the Tribunal's file.
