Ms. Charanjeet Kaur, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Naveen Tiwari, Advocate holding brief of Ms. Mamta Bisht, Advocate for respondent nos. 1 to 3, 6 & 7.

Mr. Vikas Pande, Advocate for respondent no. 4.

By means of present writ petition, the petitioner seeks following reliefs, among others:

“(i) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus commanding the respondents to issue NOC, experience certificate and character certificate from concerned respondents, so that the petitioner can pursue and complete his research work.

(ii) Issue a writ, order or direction in the nature of mandamus directing the respondents to give amount of fellowship from 22.11.2014 till date, to the petitioner.”

It is the submission of learned counsel for the petitioner that Director (Research) of the Kumaon University vide letter dated 28.04.2016 has already recommended to the Head of the Department, Department of Physics, DSB Campus, Nainital for granting No Dues and No Objection Certificate to the petitioner so that he could continue with his research work. Director, DSB Campus, Nainital has also written to the Head of the Department, Department of Physics vide letter dated 18.10.2016 for releasing balance amount of fellowship along with certificates, but according to learned counsel for the petitioner, despite all these recommendations, the petitioner is not being granted NOC, experience certificate, character certificate, balance of fellowship amount etc.

Learned counsel for the petitioner confined her prayer only to the extent that the respondent no. 1 be directed to decide the representation of the petitioner, which he will move shortly, at an early date, in accordance with law, to which learned C.S.C. has no objection.

Writ petition is disposed of at the admission stage itself by making a request to respondent no. 1 to decide the representation of the petitioner, which he will move shortly, in accordance with law, at an earliest possible but not later than eight weeks of production of certified copy of this order along with a copy of fresh representation.

It is further directed that the decision so taken by the respondent no. 1 shall be communicated to the petitioner thereafter.

[Urgency application no. 564 of 2017 as well as interim relief application no. 880 of 2017 both stands disposed of.]
