Order

29/09/2018

This second application for suspension of sentence has been filed on the ground that after rejection of first application for suspension of sentence on 18.7.2016, more than two years have gone by and the hearing of the appeal is likely to take long.

This Court by aforesaid order dated 18.7.2016 dismissed the first application for suspension of sentence on merits. There is no new circumstance justifying entertainment of this second application for suspension of sentence. The application for suspension of sentence is dismissed.

Considering, however, that the appellant is in jail for last two and half years and that he is too poor to afford the expenses for preparation of paper book, office is directed to prepare the paper book and on preparation thereof, the appeal be listed for hearing.
