Writ Petition No.7647/2018

(Kailash Chand Soni Vs. The Chairman Railway Board & Ors.)

Indore, dated 27/04/2018

Shri Bheemsen Soni, learned counsel for the petitioner.

The petitioner before this Court has filed present petition stating that he was travelling in a train and as birth was broken, he has received some injury and compensation should be granted to him.

This Court in exercise of writ jurisdiction cannot quantify and grant him compensation. There is a statutory mechanism provided under the Railway Claims Tribunal Act, 1987 for raising the claim and the petitioner is certainly free to raise his claim as per the provisions provided under the Railway Claims Tribunal Act, 1887 / he is also free to raise a claim before appropriate forum. The petitioner shall also be free to file a civil suit or shall be free to take shelter of any other appropriate recourse or other remedies available under the law.

With the aforesaid, writ petition stands disposed of.
