CORAM: HONOURABLE MR.JUSTICE P.P.BHATTDate : 28/03/2018*ORAL ORDER

1. In this matter, more than three chances have been given to the learned advocates for supplying the fresh set of the documents for reconstruction of the matter.

2. Despite sufficient opportunity was given, till date, no steps have been taken for reconstruction of the matter.

3. Under the circumstances, this Court has no other option, but to dispose of the proceedings with a liberty to the parties to apply for restoration and reconstruction in future if the advocates or the parties present necessary documents.

4. In similar situation, in Special Civil Application No.288 of 1984 and allied matters, the Division Bench of this Court (Coram: Akil A. Kureshi and Biren Vaishnav, JJ.) by order dated 30.03.2017 has also disposed of the proceedings by giving liberty to the parties to apply for restoration or reconstruction in future if the advocates present necessary documents.

5. In view of the above position and for want of documents for reconstruction, the present proceedings stand disposed of with a liberty to revive the same in case of any difficulty in future.
