Having considered the materials in the case diary and bearing in mind the extent of complicity of the petitioner who is the brother in law of the victim housewife in the alleged crime and in the light of the submission that he did not ordinarily reside at her matrimonial home and used to work in Kerala, we are inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Accordingly, we direct that in the event of arrest, the petitioner shall be released on bail upon furnishing a bond of Rs. 10,000/- with two sureties of like amount each, to the satisfaction of the Arresting Officer and also subject to the conditions as laid down under section 438(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and that the petitioner shall appear before the court below and pray for regular bail within four weeks from date.

The application being CRM 8985 of 2019 is disposed of.
