

2. 31.01.2019 Heard Shri B. Nayak, learned counsel for the petitioner and Shri U.K. Sahoo, learned Additional Standing Counsel.

As the petitioner has clear statutory remedy of appeal, she should not have filed this writ petition instead of approaching the appellate authority. The grounds raised herein can very well be raised before the appellate authority by filing appeal for consideration.

The writ petition stands disposed of with the above observation.

.....
(Biswanath Rath, J.)