

The High Court Of Madhya PradeshMCRC-28573-2019(TEEJA DEVI Vs THE STATE OF MADHYA PRADESH)Jabalpur, Dated : 31-07-2019

Shri Rajendra Pratap Singh, learned counsel for the applicant.

Shri Pradeep Sharma, learned Government Advocate for the respondent/State.

Learned counsel for the applicant prays for withdrawal of the anticipatory bail application with a liberty to the applicant to surrender before the concerned trial Court and the said Court may be directed to consider and decide the regular bail application on the same date.

Considering the aforesaid, the present anticipatory bail application stands dismissed as withdrawn. If the applicant surrenders before the competent authority and after his surrender files an application for grant of regular bail before the concerned Court, it shall be decided at an early date.

C.C. as per rules.
