ORAL ORDER

By way of present application, party-in-person-wife of the applicant prays to release her husband on temporary bail for 30 days on the ground of medical treatment of his children.

Considering the facts of the case, it appears that the party-in-person has directly approached this Court. Therefore, present application stands dismissed with a direction to the party-in-person to approach the learned Sessions Court concerned for temporary bail.

It is clarified that this Court has not examined the case on merits and the learned Sessions Court concerned shall decide application, if any, preferred by the convict on merits and in accordance with law.
