Petitioner has filed this petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India seeking first regular parole for twenty days.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is in custody for the last more than five years. Jail conduct of the petitioner is satisfactory. Case of the petitioner for his release on parole has been recommended by the Social Justice and Empowerment Department vide Annexure-R/3.

Learned State counsel, has opposed the petition.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case, it would be just and expedient to order the release of the petitioner on first regular parole.

Accordingly, this petition is allowed. Petitioner be released on first regular parole for twenty days subject to the satisfaction of respondent No. 3.
