

C482 No. 663 of 2020

With

CRMA No. 3845/2020 (Compounding Application)

Hon'ble N.S. Dhanik, J.

(Via Video Conferencing)

Mr. Sanjeev Singh, learned counsel for the applicant.

Mrs. Pushpa Bhatt, learned Deputy Advocate General for the State.

Mr. Niranjana Bhatt, learned counsel for respondent no. 2.

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

This criminal misc. application has been filed by the applicant to quash the proceedings against the applicant in Criminal Case No. 1577 of 2019, "State vs. Wasim", pending in the Court of learned Second Judicial Magistrate, Roorkee, District Haridwar.

In the compounding application, duly supported by the affidavit of respondent no. 2, bears the signatures of learned counsel for the applicant as well as learned counsel for respondent no. 2, it has been stated that parties have amicably settled their dispute and the respondent no. 2 do not want to prosecute the accused applicant. Accused applicant Wasim as well as the Amjad Khan (respondent no. 2/ complainant) is present in the Court through Video Conferencing and they are duly identified by their respective Counsel and they admitted that they are entered into compromise.

Learned State Counsel conceded that the matter can be compounded.

In view of the above and considering the principle of law laid down by Hon'ble Apex Court in Nikhil Merchant v. C.B.I. & Ors, (2008) 9 SCC 677; B.S. Joshi v. State of Haryana & Anr reported in (2003) 4 SCC 675, and in Gian Singh v. State of Punjab & Another, (2012) 10 SCC 303, the compounding application is allowed. Compromise arrived at between the parties is accepted. Consequently, the proceedings against the applicant in Criminal Case No. 1577 of 2019, "State vs. Wasim", pending in the Court of learned Second Judicial Magistrate, Roorkee, District Haridwar, are hereby quashed.

The C-482 application is, accordingly, disposed of.
