The case diary and the statement of the informant and other witnesses that has already been recorded reveals that there is a dispute between the parties regarding the parking of the vehicles inside the premises and sometime altercation took place between the parties while parking of their vehicles, contending that the vehicles could not be accommodated in the premises which has been purchased by the informant from the accused petitioner. Such a matter could be sorted out by the parties themselves by sitting together, as they are residing in the same complex, instead of filing criminal cases.
