Defects, as pointed out by the office, are ignored for the time being.

Apprehending their arrest, the petitioners have moved this Court for grant of privilege of anticipatory bail in connection with Lalpur P.S. Case No. 200 of 2020 for the offence under Sections 419/420/467/468/471/34 of the Indian Penal Code and is pending in the Court of learned Judicial Magistrate, 1st Class, XXIII, Ranchi.

It has been submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioners that the allegation against these petitioners are that they have sold the landed property of the informant claiming themselves to be his brother. Learned counsel for the petitioners has argued that there is civil dispute between the parties and there is a partition suit.

Learned A. P. P. has opposed the prayer.

Considering the material available on records and seeing the nature of allegation and nature of dispute, the petitioners are granted privilege of anticipatory bail. Hence, in the event of their arrest or surrender within a period of six weeks from the date of this order, they shall be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate, 1st Class, XXIII, Ranchi, in connection with Lalpur P.S. Case No. 200 of 2020 subject to the conditions as laid down under section 438 (2) Cr. P.C.
