THROUGH VIDEO CONFERENCE

Ravi Malimath, Judge (Oral)

The case of the petitioner is that an application filed by him seeking for issuance of bonafide Himachali certificate has not yet been considered by the respondents. It is submitted that all the procedural requirements under the law have been complied with, even then, the State is not granting the certificate.

2. Learned Advocate General has submitted that the certain clarifications have been sought for, but until and unless those material particulars are received by the State, it will not be in a position to consider the case of the petitioner.

3. In view of the submissions made, we deem it just and proper that the application of the petitioner should be considered, as expeditiously as possible. To this effect, if the respondent-State shall have any query from the petitioner, they shall seek the same from the petitioner, as expeditiously as possible. An appropriate order on the application of the petitioner, shall be passed within a period of eight weeks from today.

The petition is disposed off accordingly. Pending miscellaneous application is also disposed off.
