After arguing sometime, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw the present petition with liberty to file afresh in the appropriate Court, as and when required. He further states that the petitioner is behind the bars for the last more than ten months and submits that the learned Court below may be directed to dispose of the trial at the earliest possible in a time bound manner. Permission granted.

2. At this stage, taking into consideration the request, as made by learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner, the present petition is dismissed as withdrawn, with liberty to file afresh, in the appropriate Court, as and when required. However, taking into consideration the fact that the petitioner is behind the bars for the last more than ten months, the learned Court below will try to dispose of the matter at the earliest possible.

¹ Whether reporters of Local Papers may be allowed to see the judgment? Yes.

3. The petition, as also pending application(s), if any, shall stand(s) disposed of.
