Petition under Section 482 of Cr.P.C praying that in the circumstances stated in the Memorandum of Grounds of Criminal Petition, the High Court may be pleased to direct the Respondent to return the seized property in connection with Crime No.147 of 2021, P.S.Rein Bazar, Hyderabad pending disposal of the CrI.P.

This Petition coming on for hearing, upon perusing the Memorandum of Grounds of Criminal Petition and upon hearing the arguments of Sri SRINIVAS REDDY BALAKISTI, Advocate for the Petitioner and of the Assistant Public Prosecutor on behalf of the Respondent.

The Court made the following: ORDER

THE HON'BLE Dr. JUSTICE SHAMEEM AKTHER

CRIMINAL PETITION No.7264 of 2021

ORDER:

This Criminal Petition, under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, is filed by the petitioner/accused, seeking to quash the proceedings in Crime No.147 of 2021 of Reinbazar Police Station, Hyderabad, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 188, 269, 273 and 420 of IPC and Section 20(2) of Cigarettes and Other Tobacco Products (Prohibition of Advertisement and Regulation of Trade and Commerce, Production, Supply and Distribution) Act, 2003 (for short, 'COTP Act').

2. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner/accused, the learned Assistant Public Prosecutor representing the respondent-State and perused the record.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner/accused would submit that the facts and circumstances of the case on hand are akin to the facts and circumstances of the case in Crime No.34 of 2018 of Manakondur Police Station, and the proceedings in the said case were quashed by this Court, vide common order, dated 27.08.2018, passed in Criminal Petition No.3731 of 2018 and batch. The allegations in the subject crime also do not constitute the offences under Sections 188, 269, 273 and 420 of IPC and Section 20(2) of COTP Act and ultimately, prayed to allow the Criminal Petition, as prayed for.

4. The learned Assistant Public Prosecutor has conceded that the allegations in the subject FIR do not constitute offences under Sections 188, 269, 273 and 420 of IPC, but contended that since the offence under Section 20(2) of COTPA Act is cognizable, the proceedings against the petitioner/accused for the said offence are not liable to be quashed.

5. In view of the above submissions and the material placed on record, the allegations made against the petitioner/accused in the subject Crime No.147 of 2021 of Reimbazar Police Station, Hyderabad, do not constitute the offences under Sections 188, 269, 273 and 420 of IPC. Therefore, when there is no information constituting such cognizable offences, issuance of FIR in respect of such offences is unsustainable and is liable to be quashed. Accordingly, the proceedings against the petitioner/accused for the offences under Sections 188, 269, 273 and 420 of IPC, in the subject crime are hereby quashed.

6. Insofar as the offence under Section 20(2) of COTPA Act is concerned, the material placed on record prima facie discloses commission of said offence by the petitioner/accused and hence, proceedings against the petitioner/accused in relation to the said offence, cannot be quashed. The investigating authority has to investigate into the said offence in accordance with law and file charge-sheet/final report, as the case may be.

7. Accordingly, this Criminal Petition is partly allowed, as indicated above.

Miscellaneous petitions, if any, pending in this Criminal
Petition, shall stand closed.
