DEEPAK SIBAL, J. (ORAL)

The appellant preferred a regular second appeal to challenge therein judgment and decree dated 03.08.2011, passed by the Additional Civil Judge (Senior Division), Ambala as also judgment and decree dated 26.03.2013, passed by the District Judge, Ambala. Such appeal was admitted for regular hearing but before the same could be finally adjudicated upon, an application has been filed by the legal representatives of the appellant, duly supported by an affidavit, seeking withdrawal of the appeal on the ground that the dispute between the parties has been amicably resolved.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondents admits to the compromise between the parties and submits that he has no objection if the appellants' prayer for withdrawal of the appeal is accepted.

In view of the above development, with the consent of learned counsel for the parties, the main appeal is taken on board and is permitted to be withdrawn.

Dismissed as withdrawn.
